ZO SKIN HEALTH, INC., et al. ,)	MEMORANDUM OF OPINION
)	AND ORDER
Defendants.)	[Resolving ECF No. 30]

Pending is Defendant Triton Benefits & HR Solutions’ (“Triton”) Motion to Set Aside Default Entered Against Triton (ECF No. 30) pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55\(c\), filed on August 11, 2020. The Court has been advised, having reviewed the record, the parties’ briefs, and the applicable law. For the reasons below, the motion is granted to allow for resolution on the merits.

I.

On April 10, 2020, Plaintiff Vicki McKenna filed a Complaint (ECF No. 1) against ZO Skin Health, Inc., Infinisource, Inc. dba Infinisource Benefit Services, Triton, and PuraCap Pharmaceutical LLC. Plaintiff’s purported claims arise from her voluntary attempt to terminate her COBRA continuing coverage based on the advice of Defendants ZO Skin Health Inc. and Infinisource Inc. The claims against all Defendants except Triton have been resolved. See ECF Nos. 26 and 36. Until recently, Triton was only represented by counsel from Princeton, New Jersey.

Triton was duly served with summons and the Complaint (ECF No. 1) by certified mail, see ECF No. 9; but, had failed to plead or otherwise defend. Therefore, on June 25, 2020, the Clerk entered the default of Triton pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55\(a\). See ECF No. 21. On July 31, 2020, the Court entered a Default Judgment as to the Issue of Liability Alone and set an electronic default judgment hearing as to the amount of damages, attorney's fees, and costs. See ECF No. 24.

Triton's Motion to Set Aside Default (ECF No. 30) is currently set for an electronic hearing on September 16, 2020. See Order (ECF No. 32). However, "[t]he Judicial Officer may [] rule on any opposed motion without hearing at any time after the time for filing a reply memorandum has elapsed." LR 7.1\(g\).

II.

Triton's Motion to Set Aside Default (ECF No. 30) was filed only seven business days after the Court entered the Default Judgment as to the Issue of Liability Alone.

The Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit has established three factors relevant to the determination of whether "good cause" exists to set aside an entry of default pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55\(c\): "(1) [w]hether culpable conduct of the defendant led to the default, (2)[w]hether the defendant has a meritorious defense, and (3)[w]hether the plaintiff will be prejudiced." Waifersong, Ltd. Inc. v. Classic Music Vending, 976 F.2d 290, 292 (6th Cir. 1992); accord Weiss v. St. Paul Fire and Marine Ins. Co., 283 F.3d 790, 794 (6th Cir. 2002). While courts consider these same three factors in evaluating whether to set aside a default judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60\(b\), "[i]n practice a somewhat more lenient standard is applied to Rule 55\(c\) motions."

(4:20CV0783)

Shepard Claims Service v. William Darrah & Assoc., 796 F.2d 190, 193 (6th Cir. 1986);

Waifersong, 976 F.2d at 292 (“[T]he methodology for considering these factors and the weight to be accorded them depends on whether the court is confronted by an entry of default or a default judgment.”). Thus, although “[a]ll three factors must be considered in ruling on a motion to set aside entry of default,” when a defendant has a meritorious defense and the plaintiff would not be prejudiced, “it is an abuse of discretion for a district court to deny a Rule 55(c) motion in the absence of a willful failure of the moving party to appear and plead.” Shepard, 796 F.2d at 194.

Plaintiff claims that Triton engaged in culpable conduct by seeking to resolve the matter through settlement discussions and serving a Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 motion. ECF No. 34 at PageID #: 136-37. Triton’s delay in responding to the Complaint (ECF No. 1) was the result of attempting to resolve the matter¹ and its efforts to seek the retention of Ohio counsel, which it has now done. Moreover, Triton was required under Rule 11 to send a copy of its notice to Plaintiff before seeking sanctions, which it did on July 8, 2020. See Rule 11(c)(2); Darnell v. Arthur, 782 Fed.Appx. 413, 417 (6th Cir. 2019) (discussing Rule 11’s safe-harbor protections).

Plaintiff admits that her COBRA coverage was not actually terminated and that her insurance claims were paid during the COBRA coverage period. Plaintiff claims that although her claims were paid, the insurance provider could potentially seek to recoup those amounts at some future time because her premium was returned. ECF No. 34 at PageID #: 135. Triton has a meritorious defense that Plaintiff has suffered no damages. Triton argues any claims which

Plaintiff may have are not yet ripe. ECF No. 37 at PageID #: 381-82. “Ripeness is a justiciability doctrine designed ‘to prevent the courts, through premature adjudication, from entangling themselves in abstract disagreements.’ ” Kentucky Press Ass’n, Inc. v. Kentucky, 454 F.3d 505, 509 \(6th Cir.2006\) (quoting Thomas v. Union Carbide Agric. Prods. Co., 473 U.S. 568, 580 \(1985\)).

Finally, Plaintiff claims that she will be prejudiced because of her failing health due to cancer. ECF No. 34 at PageID #: 140. Other than incurring additional attorneys’ fees,² Plaintiff is not prejudiced as her participation in the litigation, at this time, is not necessary for adjudication of her claims against Triton. It is undisputed that Plaintiff’s COBRA coverage was never terminated, and her claims made to the insurance provider were paid. If Plaintiff were to become unavailable, it arguably would not affect her ability to prosecute her claims.

III.

Accordingly, Triton’s Motion to Set Aside Default (ECF No. 30) is granted. The default entered against Triton pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55\(a\) (ECF No. 21) and Default Judgment as to the Issue of Liability Alone (ECF No. 24) are vacated and set aside. The above-entitled action is reinstated to the Court’s active docket.

Triton is granted leave until September 21, 2020 to answer, plead or otherwise move in response to the Complaint (ECF No. 1).

² Increased litigation costs to the plaintiff generally is not the kind of prejudice that can support sustaining an entry of default. United States v. \$22,050.00 U.S. Currency, 595 F.3d 318, 325 \(6th Cir. 2010\).

(4:20CV0783)

The electronic hearing set on September 16, 2020 regarding Triton's Motion to Set Aside Default (ECF No. 30) and default judgment hearing is cancelled. A separate Telephonic Case Management Conference Scheduling Order will be issued.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
